DENVER ATTORNEY PAYS COMPLIMENT

"I want to say this about Harry Stimler," said Hon. Thomas J. O'Donnell, the Denver attorney, who recently took over the Doctor group. "Every representation he made was found to be absolutely accurate and checked up to the letter. This is something new in my experience with promoters who are usually governed by their own optimism and allow their judgment to be influenced accordingly. They are an honorable and honest class of men, as a rule, and I know they would not deliberately lie but they cannot help observing the brighter side and are prone to exaggerate. In the case of Stimler, a man I never met before until he arrived in Denver, his statements were strictly within the truth without shading a hair. That's the kind of a man I like to do business with."

TWO MORE CLERKS AT WESTERN UNION

Not satisfied with having increased its working forces twice during the past two weeks, the Western Union has added two more employees to the Tonopah office. Miss E. R. Small, of San Francisco, arrived Friday morning to take the position of night clerk and assistant bookkeeper. Iven Branson, from Stockton, Cal., will take the desk of the delivery clerk.

AZTEC DIVIDE COMPANY PERFECTS ORGANIZATION

The Aztec Divide Mines company was organized last evening after articles of incorporation were received with the following officers: W. H. Thomas, president; Lowell Daniels, vice president; W. H. The property is 1200 feet west of the Hasbrouck and adjoins the Hasbrouck Divide ground, which has started a two-compartment shaft. The Aztec will commence operations early next week and has sufficient funds to prosecute work vigorously. Application to list will be made about May 1.

BUYS MACHINERY BEFORE DAYBREAK

In these strenuous times, if you have machinery or mining equipment for sale you should disconnect your phone and bar your door when you go to bed for the night, for there's no telling what will happen. Lee Muschetti had an experience this morning when he was pulled out of bed before daylight by a caller inquiring for a complete mine equipment to be delivered at 7 o'clock. The caller was Eddie Mead, secretary of the Cash Boy, Gold Wedge and Reno Divide companies. The latter is not quite ready for machinery but the enterprising Eddie heard that machinery was at a premium and that a rival was likely to grab hold of the few pieces he knew were on the market so he pulled Muschetti out of bed and bought the whole plant right there over the wire. The Reno Divide will not be ready for the machinery for two weeks but there is nothing like taking time by the forelock and heading off a shortage. The Gold Wedge is down 75 feet and has a complete plant installed.

NEVADA SOLDIERS STOP AT KEARNEY

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 5.—Bringing 2100 troops of the Fourth division from the National Guard of California and Nevada the steamship Edgar Luckenbach arrived today from Bordeaux. The majority will be sent to Camp Kearney for demobilization.

YANKEE GIRL SOLD

Frank Lathrop, the mining man of San Francisco, has bought the Yankee Girl, Anna K. and Silver Dollar claims adjoining the Rosetta group on the north, which are on the trend of all Divide veins and the Rosetta veins. Two big ledges which show values are exposed on the surface. Assays from these ledges run from $1.70 to $28 in gold and silver. Mr. Lathrop expects to start work immediately as soon as a plant already in transit arrives. The ownership is vested in a company consisting of the wealthy men of San Francisco. The company will be known as the Divide Syndicate Mining company and the stock will be listed next Tuesday. The property was sold by Charles Klehofer, "Doc" Harrison, Walter Bowler and Louis Gebhardt.

FORMER BELMONT ENGINEER OPENS OFFICE IN TONOPAH

Mr. McKenzie was with the Wagner Belmont, a Canadian subsidiary of the local company during the early days of that enterprise and was also in charge of the Climax mine owned by the American Metals company at Leadville. Mr. McKenzie served with the engineering corps during war.

AMUSEMENTS

BOTH EMMY WEHLEN AND TOM MIX TODAY

Emmy Wehlen, in "His Bonded Wife," a smash up to date comedy from a society life, will be one of the attractions at the Butler today. The story is that of a beautiful young society girl who wishes to be sure that the man she marries is in love with her for her own beautiful self and not for her wealth. With this idea in view she leaves her luxurious home and lives the quiet simple life of a girl in ordinary circumstances. Here she meets and falls in love with a young architect who is also in love with her. She still loves as a poor girl, however, and the unusual complications which arise impart many humorous situations as well as many semitragic ones to the clever play. The role of the young architect, Phil Hazard, is played by Creighton Hale.

Added to the program today will be another treat in a Tom Mix two-reel comedy, "A Roman Cowboy." Tomorrow a popular star who has been seen but very few times in Tonopah—Bessie Washburn—in the Paramount production, "The Way of a Man and a Maid" and Ruth Roland in "Hands Up," the great western serial.
